Chapter 3 by Grace

(Charlie)

Me, Mum and Dad went to get my things for Hogwarts. I got really excited, because Daddy told me he had a great time there. Mum told me not to keep books that write by itself, and I laughed. We bought my things, and I was super excited. AGAIN.

(Abigail)

I smiled, and jumped all around The Leaky Cauldron. "Calm down, Abigail!" Mum yelled. I stopped jumping and we walked out. We got everything we needed, and went for my uniform fittings. None of them fit, so Dad

We were walking down Diagon Alley, when Dad stopped. I kept walking, and fell because I was holding his hand. I got up, and saw someone that was really old, like an old man. "Dumbledore," Dad said, smugly. "Who's Dumbledore?" I asked him. "My second worst enemy," He answered. "Who's your first?" I asked. "Harry Potter. Now stop asking questions and let's go buy your school supplies."

(Noor)

We had bought all of my things, when I stopped. "Who's that?" I pointed to a boy with brown hair (Inherited from his mother). He seemed about my age, and he had glasses. He was walking with his Mum and Dad. "Don't even think about going over there, young lady!" Dad screamed. But I was already running at whoever he was. "Hi!" I said, waving happily. The boy looked at me. "Hello," He said. He seemed friendly. "I'm Noor! What's your name?" I asked cheerfully. "Charlie. Charlie Potter." He said back. His Dad looked down at me and stared at me. "You must be Voldemort's daughter," He said. I nodded. "NOOR RIDDLE! GET OVER HERE RIGHT NOW!" Dad screamed. "Uh, I have to go. I'll see you at Hogwarts!" I waved to Charlie, and started running back.

(Kevin)

Mum didn't want to come with us, so it was just me and Dad. We got our things and went to get some food. "You can get whatever you want, Kevin," Dad said. "Can I get ice cream?" I asked. He nodded and looked at the person behind the counter. "One Chocolate Fudge sundae, please." He said.

We ordered our food and sat down to eat. We ate quickly. I ran out onto the street waiting for Dad. "Hmm.." I said. I was feeling a little sneaky, so I took out my wand, pointed to a plant and remembered the spells Dad taught me before we left. "Wingardium Leviosa!" I said and the plant started floating.
